

Prostate Cancer Training for GP practices in Brent

Title - Interacting effectively with black African and black Caribbean communities in order to deliver increased patient satisfaction and improved prostate cancer outcomes.

Aim - An opportunity for GPs, Practice Nurses and Managers to hear first-hand from specialists, patients and service providers regarding black men's thoughts, attitudes, beliefs and practices regarding prostate cancer.

Target audience - GPs, Practice Nurses and Practice Managers

Venue - Boardroom, Sattavis Patidar Centre, Forty Avenue, Wembley HA9 9PE

Date - Thursday 15th March 2018

Time - 13.00 – 15.00

Speakers

Professor Francis Chinegwundoh MBE

Consultant Urological Surgeon
Barts Health NHS Trust

Alfred Samuel

Prostate Cancer Patient – Brent Resident

Ali Orhan

Prostate Cancer Information Manager Specialist Nurse
Orchid

Jean Gilkes

Cancer Information Officer - Cancer Black Care

Ian Niven

Manager - Healthwatch Brent

Lunch and refreshments provided

SUPPORTED BY

Brent

Clinical Commissioning Group

RSVP - Please confirm your attendance by calling

Okey Arinze on 0203 345 7313 or by emailing him on Okey.Arinze@orchid-cancer.org.uk